

Congratulations Audies® Finalists! Check For Narrators You Know ...

February 24, 2011

(VOXtra) - The Audio Publishers Association (APA) has announced the finalists for its 2011 Audies® competition, the prestigious awards program devoted entirely to honoring spoken word entertainment.

The Audies are considered the 'Oscars' of the audiobook industry.

Winners will be announced at the Audies Gala on May 24 at The TimesCenter in New York City.

Bestselling author Adriana Trigiani (pictured) will emcee the exciting event.

Breaking last year's record with over 1,100 titles entered, the competition thrived in 2011, a clear indicator of the strength of the audiobook industry, notes the APA.

New to the competition in 2011 is the special Judges' Award: Paranormal. Established to recognize excellence in the creation of an audiobook in the increasingly popular genre of paranormal (abridged or unabridged, single or multi-voiced), the award will be selected based on excellence in production, engineering and mix, compelling presentation and overall design.

CHALLENGE FOR JUDGES

"The audiobook industry ups the ante again this year with the most outstanding productions," says Janet Benson, APA President.

"Our competition continues to grow, and luckily our judges embrace the challenge of vetting the great range and quality of audiobooks made this year," she adds.

GALA EMCEE

Trigiani is beloved by millions of readers around the world for her bestselling novels, including the Big Stone Gap series, Lucia, Lucia and Very Valentine, as well as the non-fiction Don't Sing at the Table: Life Lessons from My Grandmothers.

She has written the big screen adaptation of Big Stone Gap, which she will also direct, and film versions of Very Valentine and Lucia, Lucia are in the works.

"I am thrilled to emcee the Audies, a dazzling evening that honors the actors, producers and authors who bring books to life through the spoken word," she says.

"If we were lucky enough to be read to as children, audiobooks keep us engaged, enthralled and entertained our whole lives long.

"Expect a fun and fabulous evening."

MORE TO COME

Finalists for Distinguished Achievement in Production and Audiobook of the Year - the Audies' most prestigious awards - will be announced in the spring.

The Distinguished Achievement in Production award honors an audiobook that demonstrates excellence in all areas of production.

The Audiobook of the Year award recognizes an audiobook that, through quality, innovation, marketing and sales, has had a significant impact on the industry.
